May Change Free Delivery.

Post-office inspectors have been working for several days to revise the rural and city delivery, so as to put in operation certain changes which are deemed necessary for the department. It is probable that they will transfer delivery from a few thinly-settled districts to others which have recently grown up and which justify free delivery.

The last "Daughter of the Confederacy," Mrs. Margaret Howell Jefferson Davis Hayes, has been gathered to her fathers, and we feel that this abole woman and faithful Christian has surely been permitted to enter into the joy of an unbroken family circle, a resulton of souls, whose earthly tabernacles in fair Hollywood have not been to her the end of hope and love, but instead, all through the to-day, so that every man will have the opportunity to go out and taste some of the Sale stew, without one taste of which life would not have been well spent. Then on this day the officer can play like an ordinary eltizen and forget for the moment that he is an arm of the law, and must watch out for those of glady head and unwary feet and those others who work by night and reap the savings of those who labor by day. Never Such Bitterness.

Old politicians, who have passed through many bitter struggles, declare that never before in their recollection has such a vituperative campaign taken place in the State between two Democrats for the office of Governor, Eight years ago Montague and Swanson engaged in a battle which was on the State ticket—two for Governor and two for each of the following and two for each of the state of the following and two for each of the state of agriculture of the following and two for each of the wards of the control of the counting, but this idea will hardly prevail, it being held by many that more than one box would entail confusion among the voters.
